MOST OF THE CLERKS OF PETTY SESSIONS IN THE COUNTRY TOWNS ARE APPOINTED AGENTS.

The business of this Company is threefold.

1ST. LIFE INSURANCE, which enables persons to provide for the widowed, orphans, or others, at their decease.

2ND. DEFERRED ANNUITIES, which enables persons to secure for themselves, or their nominees, an independence in their old age, by means of an annuity punctually paid as long as they may live.

3RD. ENDOWMENTS for children, payable at the ages of 14, 20, and 21, to enable persons to provide for the education and establishment in life of their children.

INSURANCE BRANCH.

BY the payment of a small annual Subscription a person is enabled to provide for his family at his death as securely as if he left them houses or land. Life Assurance has become almost universal in Great Britain, and numerous families are constantly being saved from absolute ruin by the forethought and providence of their parents in insuring their lives.

ANNUITY BRANCH.

Deferred Annuities, or Annuities payable in old age, are purchased by small contributions, payable monthly, quarterly, half-yearly, or annually. They are eminently calculated for this colony, where all classes are enabled to save a little from their incomes, beyond providing themselves with a liberal provision for the present time. Through the instrumentality of this Society, these Annuities, and the Subscriptions for them, are protected by Act of Council, 14 Victoria, No. 11, from being levied upon by the Judgment of any Courts of Law in the Colony, and are therefore equivalent to Government Pensions,—thus enabling the provident man to make the declining years of his life comfortable, by laying aside in his youth a small portion of his income.

ENDOWMENT BRANCH.

Endowments, or sums payable to persons at the age of 14, 20, and 21, are purchased in the same way as Deferred Annuities. These are very desirable for parents, whose limited incomes prevent them securing sufficient to set their children out in life, or to educate them at the proposed University, or other superior schools.

Females, whether married or single, are eligible for any of the above branches.

The profits are to be divided among the members every five years.

Forms of proposal, and all information, may be obtained at the offices of the Society from 10 to 4 daily.

5576 Secretary.

JAMES COMRIE, Secretary.
Miller's Point, January 1. 60

AUSTRALIAN SOCIETY.

MANY persons in the colony having been disappointed in not sending home their various articles of production or manufacture, to the Industrial Exhibition in London, by reason of the shortness of notice for their shipment, and the delay in the sailing of the vessel, by which it was hoped they would be in time for reception by the London Committee. The Committee of the Australian Society have thought that means might be taken for exhibiting in this colony, the various articles alluded to, and that opportunity might be afforded to extend the scope of Exhibition for all articles, not only the growth and produce of this and the neighbouring colonies; but of the numerous groups of Islands in the Pacific, whose productions and capabilities are at the present day almost a sealed book. The Committee have, therefore, determined to take measures for a general exhibition of the natural productions and manufactures of the Australian Colonies, neighbouring Countries, and Isles of the Pacific, to be held in Sydney, in October, 1851, and his Excellency the Patron of the Society has signified his readiness to place a portion of the Sydney Government Domain at the service of the Committee for such exhibition, should it be found that the project meets with the general support of the public.

The immense advantages to those colonies of such an exhibition need scarcely be dwelt upon. Civilization and improvement are the natural consequences of international communication, and no better means of furthering these great objects can be set forth, than establishing one great emporium, where people of all countries can co-mingle with the result of their labours and knowledge, and interchange the results of that intelligence, the great gift of their common Father, which he in his Almighty power and wisdom has been pleased to endow them with.

The scale upon which this important undertaking can be conducted, must depend entirely on the amount of pecuniary support which it shall receive from the public.

The Committee appeal with confidence to all classes of the community, to enable them to make such liberal arrangements, as will ensure the success of the undertaking; and such persons as are desirous of assisting in this object are requested to communicate with the Honorary Secretary, 349, Castlereagh street, Sydney.

The Committee will appoint local sub-committees, who shall collect the subscriptions within their own districts and be in constant communication with the General Committee; they will advertise all subscriptions they may receive, and defray local expenses.

The local committees will as early as possible procure an inventory or general specification of all articles proposed to be exhibited.

The Committee will confer medals or rewards on such as may be deemed worthy, according to the means afforded them by the contributions they receive.

The Committee, taking for their model the Great Industrial Exhibition in London in the present year, propose the following as the classified list of objects which may be exhibited at the General Exhibition of the products, &c., &c., of Australasia, neighbouring countries, and the Islands in the Pacific, at Sydney, in 1851.

SECTION 1.

Raw materials and produce illustrative of the natural products on which human industry is employed

SECTION 2.

Machinery for agricultural, manufacturing, engineering, and other purposes, and mechanical inventions, illustrative of the agents which human ingenuity brings to bear on the products of nature.

SECTION 3.

Manufactures, illustrative of the result produced by the operation of human industry upon natural produce. All articles manufactured in these colonies, neighbouring countries, and the Isles of the Pacific, whether from the vegetable, animal, or mineral kingdom.

A detailed list of the substances from those several kingdoms will be given at a future period.

It is proposed to invite the landed proprietors and squatters to send some of their choicest stock of horses, cattle, and sheep, &c., for exhibition, and prizes, and certificates of honour will be accorded to the successful exhibitors.

ARRIVALS.—January 25. Slains Castle, barque, 503 tons, Andrew, from London the 29th September, with emigrants. Maitland, ship, 618 tons, Henry, from Plymouth, the 8th October. Passengers—Mr. Ritter and lady, Mr Grenfell, Mr. Noding, Mr. and Mrs. Chinnery, Mr. R. Grant, Mr. Bradshaw, Rev. Wm. Miller, United Presbyterian Missionary, Mrs. Miller, Mr. Aitcheson, Mr. Cuthig, Miss Hickman, Mr. Glass, Miss Glass, Mr. and Mrs. Rose, —— Davis, Esq., surgeon, and 48 in the intermediate. Rajah, barque, 358 tons, M'Lean, from Sydney the 17th instant, in ballast.

THE SLAINS CASTLE.—This vessel has conveyed the first body of emigrants to Port Phillip, under the auspices of the Family Colonization Loan Society started by Mrs. Chisholm. The success of this most interesting experiment will be watched with considerable anxiety.

AUSTRALIAN HOPS.—The vessel Diadem, arrived in the docks from Melbourne, has brought several packages of hops, the growth and produce of Australia. This importation is of interest, as being the first importation this season, and also on account of the interesting and important district from which the supply has proceeded.—Morning Chronicle, September 27.

The Harry Lorrequer, 985 tons, chartered by the Land and Emigration Commissioners for the conveyance of immigrants to this port, was to leave London on the 29th October, calling at Plymouth to embark emigrants.

The Favorite, barque, from California via Tahiti, went ashore on Swan Point early on Wednesday morning, her commander having mistaken the buoys, and run out of the channel; being in ballast, she is expected to be got off again without damage when lightened.

A fire, which arose from spontaneous combustion, occurred on board the Maitland, on her homeward voyage; it is fortunate that the fire was discovered in time, and that it was promptly extinguished.

CUSTOM HOUSE.—Entered outwards, 4th February, Gesine, schooner, for Cape Town.

The copper regulus imported by the Susan will be shipped on board the Charlotte Jane, laid on for London.

THOMAS, COLONIAL WHALING BRIG.—This vessel has been out from Sydney nine months and a-half, and reports having taken 320 barrels sperm oil; this bad success is attributable to much sickness prevailing among the crew for some months past. Off New Zealand she spoke the whaling brig Governor, hence, out five weeks, clean. On the 24th January, during a quarrel in the forecastle, a seaman named John Daley, with a large knife stabbed another seaman named John Churner. The culprit was immediately placed in irons by Captain Eury, and handed over to the Water Police officer last evening. We are glad to find that the injured man is recovering, and is now out of danger.

ENGLISH SHIPPING.—The barque Tartar was reported to sail from Portsmouth on the 20th October. The Glenbervie sailed on the 18th from the Downs, and is now out 110 days. The Windsor was to sail in all October, and the Garland, with emigrants, on the 14th November, out 82 days, and all may be now daily expected.

PILOTS.—PORT PHILLIP.—His Excellency the Governor has directed it to be notified, for general information, that the undermentioned persons have been appointed Pilots for the Harbour of Melbourne, Port Phillip:—Mr. Henry Taylor, and Mr. Daniel Organ.

THE CANTERBURY SETTLEMENT.

WE have received the first number of The Lyttleton Times, a paper published at the Canterbury Settlement. It is neatly printed on a double sheet of foolscap, and it says much of the enterprise of the publisher, that such a paper should have been issued in less than a month from the arrival of the first immigrant vessel at the new settlement. Long accounts are given of the voyages of the first four ships, which appear to have made very favourable passages. The landholders had had a meeting, at which it was determined (Mr. GODLEY the agent for the association consenting) that the capital of the district should not be at the port, but in the plains inland, and should be called Christ Church. Some inconvenience arose from want of room in the Immigration Barracks: space for five hundred, or as many as would arrive in two ships, had been provided, but the arrival of four ships in one week with eleven hundred passengers had caused them to be inconveniently crowded: but this was merely a temporary evil, and was being remedied by the gradual dispersion of the immigrants. The thanks of the colonists were unanimously voted to Mr. GODLEY and Mr. THOMAS, with an expression of the warm admiration with which they (the colonists) have seen the various works which have been accomplished under circumstances of great and peculiar difficulty. The BISHOP OF NEW ZEALAND had attended a meeting of the colonists, and explained his wishes respecting the division of his diocese. He proposed that the South Island, so far as the northern boundary of the Canterbury settlement, should form the diocese of Lyttleton; that the Company's settlement in Cook's Straits should form a diocese, and that the northern end of the North Island should remain as a separate see under his charge: these views he had transmitted to England, and had reason to hope they would be carried out. Mr. GODLEY had been appointed by the GOVERNOR Resident Magistrate of the district. The advertisements show that business was brisk, and there was a great scarcity of boats and boatmen. In a few weeks, when the road through the hills to the plain was completed, there would be a great demand for horses and carts. We notice that section No. 1, containing a quarter of an acre, in the town of Lyttleton, which is part of the endowment of the college, had been let at £100 per annum; a rent which is most extravagantly high, and can only lead to that propensity for gambling in town lots which has been the ruin of so many settlers in the recently formed colonies. Provisions were moderate, considering the rapid increase of population; meat was 5d. per lb., and bread 7d. the two-pound loaf. We are surprised our contemporary does not give lists of passengers who arrive, it is done in all the colonies in these seas.

THE BANK RETURNS.

No. 1. LIABILITIES.

THE General Abstract of the sworn Returns of the average Assets and Liabilities of the Colonial Banks, for the quarter ended 31st December, 1850, compared with those of the previous quarter and of the corresponding quarter in 1849, exhibits, in round numbers, the following particulars.

NOTES IN CIRCULATION.

Dec. 1849.	Sept. 1850.	Dec. 1850.
£226,400	£258,800	£244,600
		Per cent.
Increase in the Year ...	£18,200, or	8·0
Decrease in the Quarter..	14,200, or	5·5

Both during the year and during the quarter, the amount of Circulation has decreased in the Bank of New South Wales, and increased in the others.

	Decrease in the Year.	Per cent.
New South Wales*	£15,500	47·8
	Increase in the Year.
Commercial	£ 6,700	17·9
Australasia	12,200	16·5
Union	14,600	17·6
	Decrease in the Quarter.	Per cent.
New South Wales ...	£10,500 ...	53·6
	Increase in the Quarter.
Commercial..... ..	£1,100 ..	2·6
Australasia	1,100 ..	1·3
Union	2,900 ..	3·1

The proportion contributed by the several banks to the Note Circulation of the colony in each of the last four quarters averaged about as follows:—

	March	June.	Sept.	Dec.
	£ s.	£ s.	£ s.	£ s.
N. S. Wales.	13 6 ..	13 2 ..	14 1 ..	6 18
Commercial..	15 16 ..	16 17 ..	16 12 ..	18 1
Australasia .	32 12 ..	32 16 ..	32 16 ..	35 3
Union.....	38 6 .	37 5 ..	36 11 ..	39 18
	£100	£100	£100	£100

DEPOSITS.

Dec., 1849.	Sept., 1850.	Dec., 1850.
£1,190,000	£1,421,500	£1,521,700
		Per cent.
Increase in the year	£331,700	27·9
Ditto in the quarter	100,200	7·0

Here is the very large increase of seven per cent during the last three months, and of nearly twenty-eight per cent. during the year. The year's increase averages considerably more than £1 per head of the entire population of the colony.

Both in the year and in the Quarter, the Deposits have increased in all the Banks.

	Increase in the Year.	Per cent.
New South Wales....	£35,800 ...	£16 4
Commercial	41,500....	28·6
Australasia	115,000....	31·8
Union	138,700 ...	30·0
	Increase in the Quarter.	Per cent.
New South Wales....	£ 1,200....	0·6
Commercial.....	5,500 ..	3·0
Australasia	30,100....	6·7
Union	63,500 ...	11·8

Notwithstanding the outcry raised last year against the impolicy of encouraging the Anglo-Colonial Banks in their competition with the strictly colonial institutions, it is palpable from these figures that the capitalists of the colony are far from having been influenced by the many complaints and arguments which were then urged. While the Deposits have increased in the two Colonial Banks, during the past quarter, by £6700, and during the past year by £77,300; in the two English Banks they have increased, during the quarter, by £93,600, and during the year by £254,600.

The proportion of Deposits held by the respective Banks, in each of the last four quarters, was about as follows:—

	March.	June.	Sept.	Dec.
	£ s.	£ s.	£ s.	£ s.
N. S. Wales ..	16 16	17 4	17 15	16 13
Commercial ..	12 0	12 18	12 15	12 6
Australasia ..	31 1	31 13	31 14	31 12
Union	40 3	38 5	37 16	39 9
	£100	£100	£100	£100

Thus the proportion of Deposits held by the English Banks, compared with those held by their colonial rivals, is nearly as three to one.

The Assets held by the Banks against these Liabilities will form the subject of another article.

* The Returns from this Bank, for the past quarter, relate to the new Company: the comparison is therefore between the transactions of the old Bank and those of the new one.

CITY COUNCIL.

THE MISSING DOCUMENTS.

REPORT of the Committee of the City Council on the subject of the "Missing Documents."

On the 10th December last, the Council resolved that the Report of the Committee on "Missing Documents" (dated and received by the Council on the 18th November last) be sent back to the Committee to hear such evidence as Mr. Alderman Egan may submit, and that he be allowed to be present to examine and cross-examine the witnesses who have already given evidence.

In accordance with this resolution, your Committee beg to submit the additional evidence adduced by Alderman Egan, including the cross examination of witnesses formerly examined.

On completing the evidence, your Committee resolved, at the request of Mr. Egan, to Report to the Council on the evidence now and formerly taken; and accordingly, on the 16th instant, appointed a Sub-Committee, consisting of the Mayor, Councillors Peden and Williams, to prepare the report. On the 17th instant, however, Alderman Egan addressed a letter to the Town Clerk, protesting against the Mayor acting on such Sub Committee, on account of his alleged personal hostility to Alderman Egan, and also solemnly protesting against the additional evidence, or any portion thereof being removed from the Town Hall on any pretence whatever.

In consequence of this attempted obstruction by Alderman Egan, to your Committee in the discharge of their duties, your Committee decline to report on the evidence adduced; but will content themselves with submitting for the consideration of the Council, the report and evidence referred back to them, and the additional evidence taken in accordance with the resolution of the Council of date 16th December last, which merely requires your Committee to hear such evidence as Mr. Egan may submit, without requiring them to Report in the matter. Alderman Egan's letter is annexed.

WILLIAM THURLOW, Chairman.

Town Hall, Sydney, 20th January 1851.

Received by the Council, and ordered to be printed.

JOHN RAE, Town Clerk.

Copy of a letter from Alderman Egan to the Town Clerk.

Sydney, 17th January, 1851.

Sir,—As I understand that the Mayor is one of a Sub-Committee appointed to prepare an additional report on the further evidence taken at my suggestion relative to what are now generally known as the "Missing Documents," and as that gentleman prepared the former report, and as his personal hostility to me is too apparent to need comment; I therefore protest against his acting on such Sub-Committee, as, under existing circumstances, I could have but little hope of receiving from his hands that strict and impartial justice to which every man is entitled.

I also solemnly protest against the additional evidence lately taken in the matter above referred to, or any portion thereof, being removed from the Town Hall on any pretext whatever.

I am, Sir, your obedient servant,

DANIEL EGAN.

John Rae, Esq., Town Clerk.

Town Clerk's Office,

Sydney, 17th January, 1851.

Dear Sir,—I beg to enclose a letter which I have just received from Alderman Egan, protesting against your acting on the Sub-Committee appointed to draw up the report on the additional evidence with reference to the "missing documents," and against the evidence being removed from the Town Hall.

Will you favour me with your instructions in the matter.

Yours, truly,

JOHN RAE, Town Clerk.

The Right Worshipful the Mayor.

Memorandum.

The Sub-Committee met this morning, and having read your letter and that of Alderman Egan, resolve that in consequence of the attempted obstruction to the discharge of their duty by the Alderman, they will not now report, but submit his letter, with the evidence, to the Council on Monday next. You will therefore simply state that the Committee, in obedience to the order of Council, submit the evidence taken by them.

W. T.

To the Town Clerk, Saturday, 18th January.

SELECTIONS FROM THE MINUTES OF EVIDENCE.

FRIDAY, DECEMBER 20, 1850.—Present: Alderman Thurlow, Councillors Josephson, Peden, Ryan, Williams, Roberts.

Councillor THOMAS re-examined.

By Mr. Egan:—You showed me the Notice which I sent to the Town Clerk on the day it appeared on the business paper, the day that the Council adjourned, 2nd September. You did not read it to me; you held it up to me; I knew before this you had it, at least Mr. Woolcott told me so, before it appeared on the business paper.—You did not give me any paper on that occasion. I was near enough to see without my glasses that the paper you showed me was the Notice of Motion; I knew my hand-writing; I recollect some conversation with Mr. Roberts; it was on the subject of evidence; I said as he was one of the jury to consider it, and I was the witness, it would be improper for me to enter on it. I do not recollect any conversation with others on the subject; I have no recollection of telling Mr. Councillor Moore that I had to give evidence, and that I would "shoot it home" to Mr. Egan. I have no recollection of any conversation with him on the matter.

Mr. WOOLCOTT re-examined.

By Mr. Egan:— * * * * *

I never told Mr. Thomas that Mr. Egan had the notice—members of Council and the officers are occasionally in the habit of going into the Town Clerk's office through the door leading from the Council Chamber, as well as the door in the hall. I was in the office on the day when the papers were missed, about nine o'clock A.M.; I left at half-past one. I was in the office the greater part of the day; I never saw the resolutions on that day after Mr. Rae arranged them in the morning. The Mayor left about 1 o'clock, and left me in the office. There was no one in the office when I went out; I locked the door and told Barron I should be absent for a few minutes; when I returned I found Mr. Lord in the office. I was in the office when Mr. Dowsett called, the Mayor was there; he came for Mr. Thurlow's amendment. I don't remember the Mayor's calling in Barron and asking him who had been there. After the Mayor was examined, or at some other time, I remember the Mayor stating to the Town Clerk that the papers did not appear to have been folded; I did not make any remark. Mr. Rae said it would be easy to put them into one's hat without tumbling them much. I do not remember Mr. Thurlow having the papers; I saw him examining the file of the newspapers; I can't say whether I examined the newspapers; it is most likely I did so, as I made a thorough search through the office. The Officers, Messengers, and Members of Council have access to the Town Clerk's office at all times during business hours, through the back doors. On the day the papers were said to be found, I attended the Finance Committee; the Town Clerk was left in his own office. The Town Clerk was called in with reference to the Bill. The business of the Committee was transacted whilst I was there. The Town Clerk was with the Committee about half an hour.

PATRICK BARRON re examined.

By Mr. Egan:— * * * * *

I saw you (Mr. Egan) come over to the Town Hall while the Committee was sitting; you were not at the Town Hall above two minutes; you went into the Town Clerk's office, and shut the door after you; when you came out the Mayor came out of the Committee and met you in the hall; you had a short conversation; the Mayor returned to the Committee, and you went away. I do not remember how long the Committee sat after you left. When Mr. Rae returned to his office he had been about two minutes within when he said, "Barron, who has been here?" I said, "Mr. Egan." After the Committee broke up, Mr. Rae went out of the hall; it was after he returned that he asked me the question about the papers that had been found. When the Committee broke up and Mr. Rae left there was no one in the office; Mr. Rae was not long absent; I can't say how long.

When the Town Clerk and Mr. Woolcott are out it is not usual to lock the door leading from the Town Clerk's office to the Council Chambers; any of the members or officers may enter through that door. I don't remember Mr. Ryan asking me this at my last examination; he may have done so. On the day when the papers were found, Mr. Rae asked me "Who had been here since he left?" I answered, "Mr. Egan." I did not mention any one else, because no one else had been here. The question was, "Who had been in the office?" My answer was, that there had been no one in the office but Mr. Egan. I mean by that from the time Mr. Woolcott left till Mr. Rae returned.

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 21, 1850.—Present: Alderman Thurlow; Councillors Josephson, Peden, Ryan, Williams, Roberts.

The Mayor (Mr. HILL) re-examined.

By Mr. Egan:—I remember the day after the meeting when the Address was passed being at the Town Hall; I returned soon after two o'clock. There was an enquiry made for some papers by Mr. Woolcott; I searched carefully for them; I called Barron, and asked him if any one had been here; he said, "No one." I said it was very strange the papers should be gone, I saw them on the window seat just before going to lunch. Mr. Lord was present when I came back, and we made a search. I believe Barron assisted in the search; he at least was present. If Barron said he never heard of the loss of the papers until the next day, it is not true. I was Chairman of the Finance Committee, and sat as such on the day when the papers were said to be found; while in the chair I saw you (Mr. Egan) come across from the Market to the Town Hall; whether you entered the Town Hall I know not, but I saw you return in about a minute or a minute and a half. I did not speak to you nor join you while the Committee was sitting. If Barron says I spoke to you, it is false. I don't remember leaving the chair while the Committee was sitting, but I am sure I did not speak to you. I think Mr. Woolcott acted as clerk the whole of the time. The Town Clerk may have come into the room during the sitting; Alderman Thurlow left the Committee while it was sitting; he may have been absent five minutes. I remember it because he was talking of placing some resolution on the paper, and when he returned I showed him by the Standing Orders that it could not be done. I examined the papers after they were found; I said to the Town Clerk "I could not think they had been in a hat or pocket, as they were not crumpled, they appeared to have been in a cupboard." I did not believe they had been taken from the office in consequence of their appearance. On the day when this Committee was appointed, the papers were asked for. The Town Clerk said he believed they were locked up in his drawer. I heard he had broken open the drawer, as the key was missing. While they were looking for them Mr. Woolcott said—"they are in the Town Clerk's portfolio." I saw the papers immediately before the meeting of Council when they were asked for. When I was examined before the Committee if I had been questioned about joining you in the Town Hall, I should have given a direct denial.

By Mr. Thurlow:—During the sitting of the Finance Committee other members of the Committee may have left the room as well as Mr. Thurlow. I have had conversations with Mr Egan on the subject of this evidence. I told him that Mr. Thurlow had left the room, and the reason why I remembered it. I told the Town Clerk the same.

By Mr. Egan:—If Barron stated the Town Clerk attended the Committee, and Mr. Woolcott remained in his office for a time and then went down the town during the sitting of the Committee, it is false.

Mr. MOFFITT re-examined.

By Mr. Egan:—I am a member of the Finance Committee. I was present on the day when the papers were found. Mr. Woolcott attended as clerk during the whole of the time. The Town Clerk was there part of the time. I sat near the window and saw you come across from the Market; I also saw you return; you nodded to me; I was coming out to speak to you, but saw you return in about two minutes; the Mayor was chairman; he did not come out to you, he had not time. If Barron said you came out of the Town Clerk's office on that occasion and joined the Mayor in the Hall, it is not true. I have read the evidence and the report; there is nothing in the evidence to exonerate all the officers, from the executive to the messengers. When I heard the Town Clerk's letter read by him, I thought the papers had been abstracted. After they were found, I changed my opinion. I then thought they had never left the Town Hall, and I am under that impression now. I remember the day when the Council adjourned, when Councillor Thomas' motion with reference to Slattery was on the business paper. When the Council broke up, you went out and were joined by Councillor Thomas and a number of others under the balcony. You said, holding up a paper, "look here, Thomas, here is your Notice." The paper now produced is the paper shown to Thomas. (It is a paper not connected with the Council proceedings at all, see appendix marked A.) I am positive that is the paper shown by Mr. Egan to Mr. Thomas on the day mentioned. After the Finance Committee was over I went over to your store and remained with you till one o'clock.

FRIDAY, DECEMBER 3, 1850.—Present: Councillors Ryan, Williams, and Peden.

Mr. Councillor HILL, re-examined.

By Mr Egan:—The first time I read Barron's evidence I saw he had stated that on Mr. Egan's coming out of the Town Clerk's office on the day when the papers were found he joined me in the Hall; I said, "Barron, how could you have stated this to the Committee, you must have known at the time when you stated it that I did not join Mr. Egan in the Hall:" to which he replied—"I thought you did." I said you must have known better, as I never left the Chair of the Committee while they were sitting. He made no reply, but shut the door and left the room.

Captain WATSON examined.

By Mr. Egan.—About the middle of August I saw Mr. Jamieson, who showed me two documents; one, which is produced, marked A, and a printed one. I said it is some joke upon Thomas, we'll take it to Alderman Egan and have some fun with Thomas. There was also an eye-glass which I gave to Mr. Egan, and which I got from Mr. Jamieson with the papers. Mr. Egan said when I gave them to him we'll have a joke with Thomas. Mr. Jamieson and I found them in a tavern. Mr. Egan was not in the tavern; I gave them to him at his stores; I don't know what was on the printed paper as I did not read it; Mr. Thomas was in the tavern along with us when the papers were found, the night previous to our taking them to Mr. Egan; I went down to the wreck of the Juniper about the end of August, and this took place more than a fortnight before, and I have not seen Mr. Jamieson since.

The Town Clerk, re-examined.

By Mr. Egan:—I know that you assisted in preparing the address, and supported the resolution which carried it in the Council.

TUESDAY, JANUARY 7.—Present: The Mayor, Councillors Roberts, Williams, Jenkins, and Peden.

Mr. Councillor ROBERTS re-examined.

By Mr Egan:—I have read the report and evidence, including your evidence with reference to my conversation with you; it is substantially correct. It would appear from my evidence that it is in the nature of a cross-examination on your evidence. The Mayor (Mr. Hill) was examined after Barron. It does not appear that he was examined with reference to any statement of Barron. I believe the documents were taken from the Town Clerk's office, and returned, but I should not like to express an opinion whether they were taken from the Town Hall or not.

Mr. Alderman EGAN stated—The document shown me by Mr. Thomas, under the balcony of the Town Hall, spoken of by him as a Notice of Motion, was the paper marked A., given to me with another paper by Captain Watson and Mr. Jamieson at my office about 14 days previously. He was complaining at the time about a word which the Town Clerk had left out of his motion, upon which I held up the paper before mentioned in my hand, in the presence of Mr. Moffitt, and said—"why, here's your motion Thomas;" upon which he went over with me to my office; I then gave him the printed paper, and the document marked A I retained, not as being connected with the Council. I read its contents to him at my office, and we had a good laugh over it.

FRIDAY, JANUARY 10.—Present: Councillors Williams, Peden, Ryan.

Mr. Councillor THOMAS re-examined.

By Mr. Williams:—I know the document (marked A.); it was written in Alderman Fisher's office, at his Stores, by Mr. Thurlow, on the 7th September, 1850. I know the date for two reasons. On that date I met Alderman Brown and Alderman Thurlow, and we all three went to Alderman Fisher's; and while sitting in his office it was written by Alderman Thurlow, handed to Mr. Fisher, and signed by him "Henry Fairplay," and handed to me. While I was at the office I saw some Derwent potatoes and ordered them. I got a Bill for them, dated 7th September. It was delivered to me with the potatoes within a day or two of the time when ordered.

By Mr. Egan:—I was never at Mr. Fisher's, to the best of my knowledge, with these three parties before or after. I had a nobbler of brandy, we then went over to the North Shore. I don't remember what conversation took place.

By Mr. Williams.—I was informed by Miss Oakes, whom I met a day or two afterwards, that Captain Watson had advised her to take the papers from my pocket. Mr. Moffitt, Mr May, Captain Watson, and Alderman Egan, were present. Alderman Egan, Mr. May, and I, went from Wilkie's to Mr. Roberts', Brickfield Hill; it was the morning after being at Mr. Roberts' that I missed the documents marked A, and two printed business papers of the Council. Alderman Egan was present for two hours. I had the papers alluded to in my coat pocket; it was after the 9th instant I lost them. I produce the bill for the potatoes, marked B. The document marked A was written on the same day as I bought the potatoes; it was on that day that he went to the North Shore. I never went to the North Shore with the same parties before or after; we went and came in a ferry-boat; we were not on the North Shore more than a quarter of an hour; I think there was canvassing for Dr. Lang going on at the time. I have no recollection of any conversation about the Election.

MONDAY, JANUARY 13, 1851.—Present: The Mayor; Councillors Roberts, Peden, and Ryan.

Mr. May, examined.

By Mr. Egan:—I remember being present at a meeting of Council, when there was a motion on the paper to inquire into Slattery's conduct—when the Council adjourned; I recollect your holding a paper up in the verandah, and calling Mr. Thomas' attention to it; you held it up between your hands; several members of the Council were present; I and others were anxious to see it, but could not; the centre part was exposed, but not the edges; I think Mr Moffitt and Mr. Ryan were present; I went over to your store; there was a paper read there—a sort of jocular last will—authorising Mr. Thomas to bury Mr. Fisher; the paper produced, marked A, is the paper which was read on this occasion; I cannot say whether the paper shown by Alderman Egan under the verandah was the document A; but this document was read subsequently, on the same day, at Mr. Egan's stores. I remember you and I being in company at Mr. Wilkie's, with Mr. Sibthorpe; I wanted to see Mr. Moffitt; I heard that Mr. Roberts', Brickfield hill, was a likely place to find him. You and I went down George-street; I wanted you to go in at first with me; you objected, but said where I could see you if I did not remain too long, you would be in Wilmott-street. When I went into Mr. Roberts' I saw Mr. Moffitt, Mr. Thomas, and Mr. Lyons, sitting in the back parlour; I then went out for you, and said "Come to Mr. Roberts', there are some of our friends there," mentioning their names; you very reluctantly went with me to Mr. Roberts. If Mr. Thomas stated that you went to Mr Roberts' with him, it is false; you and I went together into the house of Mr. Roberts alone. I did not see Mr. Watson that night, nor for some nights previously. I think the interview at Mr. Roberts' was after I had seen the document marked A.

THURSDAY, JANUARY 16, 1851.—Present: The Mayor; Councillors Williams, Peden Roberts, and Ryan.

Mr. Alderman Fisher examined.

By The Mayor.—I know the document marked A; it was written by you on a Saturday; and on consulting my books I find it was on 7th September. I know this because Mr. Thomas purchased some potatoes from me that day; that was the first business transaction I ever had with him; I find the receipt dated the 7th September; I could swear, if necessary, that it was written on the 7th September, between the hours of two and half-past three; Aldermen Thurlow and Brown were present, and Alderman Egan came in soon after it was written; the last time I saw the document it was lying on my table.

By Mr. Egan:—I did not enter the document A in my books, but I had a strong conviction that it was taken away from my office without the knowledge of Mr. Thomas; I have not used my gig for the last twelve months; I never went out with Mr. Thomas on that day; I never was at the North Shore with Mr. Thomas on that day or any other occasion; document marked A, was written within an hour or an hour and a half of document B; and on the day when they were written I never went abroad with Mr. Thomas to any place.

Alderman Egan stated that he had written to Mr. Wyld, of Brown and Co.'s., requesting to be informed of the date when Mr. Watson left Sydney for the wreck of the Juniper at Jervis Bay, and handed in the answer from Mr. Wyld, of date the 11th of January, marked C.

THE IRISH EXILES IN VAN DIEMEN'S LAND

A PUBLIC meeting, called by the Mayor, upon a requisition bearing 546 signatures, was held yesterday evening, at the Circus, in York-street, for the purpose of expressing sympathy with Messrs. O'Donoghue, M'Manus, and O'Dogherty, and of adopting a petition to the Queen for the recall of Sir William Denison, Lieutenant-Governor of Van Diemen's Land, on account of the mode of treatment which had been pursued by His Excellency towards these gentlemen.

The MAYOR having formally opened the proceedings by reading the requisition, was called upon by resolution to preside.

Mr. HAWKESLEY read a letter from Mr. Councillor Flood, apologising for his absence, and expressing his entire concurrence in the objects of the meeting. The same gentleman then moved the first resolution, the substance of which was a strong expression of opinion that Sir William Denison had acted not only unjustly and arbitrarily, but most illegally, in punishing these gentlemen for an offence for which they had been already admonished and discharged by the local magistracy.

The resolution was seconded by Mr. CURTAYNE. Both speakers contended that the very offence which had been made the ground work of the punishment imposed upon these gentlemen in Van Diemen's Land, was at the most an exceedingly venial one. And as to the original cause of their exile, it was merely that they had too well loved their country, and had risked all for its liberty. The coercion to which they had been subjected in Van Diemen's Land by the Lieutenant-Governor, who was in fact only the head gaoler of that penal country, was, it was contended, not only unnecessary but uncalled for. It could only be ascribed to a spirit of tyranny, or to other causes equally corrupt and indefensible. This motion was carried unanimously.

Mr. Councillor SIMMONS moved the second

The Horses per Salacia.—We regret to learn that a mortality broke out among the horses shipped on board the Salacia for the Canterbury Settlement, and that so rapid was its progress that before the assistance of Veterinary Surgeon Armstrong could be called in, no fewer than four deaths had occurred. By the prompt application of decisive measures by Mr. Armstrong, however, the disease has been arrested; and, four others having been put on board in lieu of the deceased, we trust that Mr. Sidey will be successful in the transportation of his unusually fine shipment of horse stock.

Committal.—Thomas Smith was yesterday brought up for further examination, touching the charge preferred against him by Mr. Johnson, of having obtained from a Mr. Thompson, the sum of 2s. 6d. under the pretence of having been sent therefor by the prosecutor. The fact of payment having been proved, and Mr. Johnson having deposed that he did not authorise the prisoner to apply for or to receive the money, Smith was committed to take his trial for the offence.

Disorderly.—Richard Hart, well known to the police, and a recent "immigrant" from the establishment at Cockatoo, was, on Monday night, apprehended by constable Flynn for being drunk and kicking up a disturbance in Clarence-street. He was yesterday ordered to find sureties for his good behaviour, or in default to be imprisoned for fourteen days.

Port Macquarie.—His Excellency the Governor directs to be notified, that the undermentioned portion of land, advertised in the Government Gazette of the 16th ultimo, as lot 5, to be leased at the Police Office, Port Macquarie, on the 27th instant, has been withdrawn from sale, viz.:—640 acres, parish of Wittitrin, near the head of Piper's Creek, County of Macquarie.—Yesterday's Government Gazette.

Cruelty to Animals.—Keeping Ferocious Dogs.—Yesterday, Bernard Dogherty, of Redfern, butcher, appeared before Mr. Dowling to prosecute Michael Cranny and William Beswick, for having unlawfully and cruelly ill-treated and tortured two dogs, the property of the complainant, one of which he valued at £5, and the other at £1. Mr. Nichols conducted the prosecution, and Mr. Driscoll the defence. The evidence of William Clarke, special constable and night watchman, was to the effect that a little before twelve o'clock on the night of Monday, the 17th ultimo, he saw the two defendants at Mr. Jenkins's druggist shop, and on going in to learn the cause, he ascertained that they were there for the purpose of getting some wounds dressed, which they said had been inflicted by Dogherty's dogs; Mr. Jenkins put a plaster or something on one of them, but refused to have anything to do with the other as too trifling to need any application; one of them had in his hand an axe handle, on which was a good deal of blood; they said they had beaten Dogherty's dogs, and, in reply to a remark by Cranny about the dogs, Beswick said "Oh, I've settled him." The next morning witness saw complainant's dogs, and they had both been beaten about the head, and of one of them the recovery was impossible. In cross-examination, Clarke said that no person could have beaten the dogs without having got over the fence to do so; he was in the habit of passing every day, and he was never attacked by them. Dogherty deposed that on the morning of the 28th ultimo, he saw the two defendants, spoke to them, and asked if they were not sorry for what they had done to the dogs, when Cranny said that he was not a bit sorry; Beswick was present but made no answer; Cranny did not then say that the dogs had attacked him; the skull of one dog is completely beat in, and can hardly expect that he will recover, though the other may. A witness named Auguste, servant of the prosecutor, deposed, that at five o'clock on the afternoon of the day named, he locked up the place where his master kept pigs, the two dogs being chained up, and the yard enclosed by a close paling fence about six feet in height; the next morning he found the fence in the same good order, and the two dogs very much beat; he kept the key, and no one could have got in but by climbing over either the gate or the fence. Mr. Dowling found the defendants guilty of having wantonly and cruelly illtreated two dogs belonging to one Bernard Dogherty. This was the first conviction he believed, under the Act 14 Vict. No. 40, introduced by Mr. Nichols during the last session of the Legislative Council, for the prevention of cruelty to animals, the necessity for which was proved by every day's observation of the treatment to which dogs, horses, and other cattle were subjected; and for that reason he should not impose the highest penalty allowed by the Act, but nevertheless one which he hoped would have the effect of showing that such conduct will not be allowed to pass with impunity when satisfactorily established. The sentence, therefore, was, that each defendant pay a penalty of 10s., damages 10s., and the costs; in default of payment in one week, to be imprisoned for a period of one calendar month.—In the next case the Chief Inspector of Police was complainant, and Dogherty defendant. The information set out that on the 27th of January, Dogherty was the keeper of "a dog which did in and upon a certain highway called George street, then and there attack a person named William Beswick, whereby the limbs of said Beswick then and there were endangered."—Here Mr. Driscoll conducted the prosecution, and Mr. Nichols the defence. The first witness called was Michael Cranney, who deposed that between eleven and twelve o'clock on the night of the 27th of January, he was passing a place at Redfern where Dogherty keeps pigs, when a bull-dog rushed through a place in the fence where some palings were down, which dog attacked and tore him: he screamed out, in consequence of which Beswick arose out of bed and came to his assistance, bringing a stick with which he beat off the dog; the dog ran through the same opening in the fence at which he came out, and they both followed him in, when they found another dog tied up; the dog flew at and bit Beswick, and would have seriously injured him, but for his (witness's) assistance to drive him off. Cross-examined: The dog attacked me, and Beswick attacked the dog; there were three or four palings down, which left a space wide enough for me to follow the dog on his retreat from Beswick; do not know whether it was a stick or an axe handle that Beswick used; believed it was an axe handle, having seen it afterwards; did not pull the fence down nor jump over it; did not put it up, nor see Beswick put it up: it was not put up. The next witness was William Beswick, who deposed that about 11 o'clock on the night in question he was in bed, when he heard some one calling out and Dogherty's dogs barking; he rose, and on going to the spot found Cranny struggling with a dog who had hold of his arm; having knocked the dog off Cranny he (the dog) turned upon witness, and bit him; in self-defence and to prevent the dog doing further mischief, followed the dog through an aperture in the fence, where another dog was chained up. Cross-examined: Could not say how many palings were down, but there was a space wide enough to admit a bullock; left the fence in the same state as he found it. Mr. Driscoll offered witnesses to prove that the defendants' had at other times rushed at other persons, but his Worship held that such evidence was not pertinent to this information. Mr. Nichols addressed the Bench for the defence, and called William Clarke, who deposed that after hearing at Mr Jenkins's the statement made by Beswick, he called up Dogherty and told him of it; at five o'clock in the following morning he accompanied Dogherty in an examination of the fence, not only that part fronting George-street, but all round, and found no opening in the fence whatever; in consequence of what he heard from Beswick he had previously examined the fence fronting George-street, but could not discover a single paling down; in no place was there room for a cat to get through. Cross-examined: Was formerly in the police force; did not leave of his own accord; he and Dogherty had to climb over the fence to get in. Re-examined: Was dismissed from the police force by Mr. Day for having been intoxicated when off duty; had not since been promoted. Augustus Auguste, in the employ of Dogherty, deposed, that on Monday afternoon, he with another person went round the yard where pigs are kept, and examined the fence, every paling was close and secure, there were none either down or loose; a pig could not get out: he then locked the gate and went away, he kept the key all night, and next morning, on going to the yard, found Dogherty and another person there; he unlocked the gate and entered, when he saw that the dogs had been beaten, and one of them was nearly dead. James Dawes accompanied the last witness in examining the fence on the evening of the 27th ultimo; it was then all right, and so secure that the smallest pig could not escape; the dogs were chained at a distance of ten yards from the fence fronting George-street. Mr. Driscoll then called witnesses to rebut the evidence of the defence as to the security of the fence, but none of them could speak as to its condition at the time involved in this transaction. His Worship then at once dismissed the case.

ORIGINAL CORRESPONDENCE.

To the Editors of the Sydney Morning Herald.

Gentlemen,—A paragraph appears in your paper on Monday last, headed "Diseased Sheep," which I did not see sufficiently early to reply to sooner. It states that the Inspector of Nuisances when visiting my slaughter-house at Blackwattle Swamp on Saturday last, found two carcases of sheep, which had dropped dead on the Parramatta-road, on the previous evening, and were in the course of removal from thence by virtue of an order from Mr. Peters, to the premises of Mr. Stewart, for examination. As such is not altogether correct, and in consequence may tend to do me an injury, I beg to lay the case before the public, leaving it to Mr. Peters to correct me, through your paper, if my statement is incorrect.

Mr. Peters on the day previous called on me, and stated that the gentlemen who were appointed by his Excellency were anxious to inspect any sheep that may have died from the disease, I told him that I had lost none recently, but that I had, in conjunction with Messrs. Sharp and Donohoe, just purchased a flock of sheep from Mr. Wyse; and as the disease generally shows itself among sheep and cattle immediately after their arrival in the county of Cumberland, I would, in the event of any dying have them kept for their inspection.

During the day, the two sheep referred to died whilst feeding on the Surry Hills. When it was reported to me by the shepherd, I sent a cart for them, and ordered them to be taken to my slaughter-house, and kept there to await the arrival of Mr. Peters, in compliance with his request, as he had appointed to be there in the morning.

But as your informant, whoever he may be, has been pleased to word his report (I should suppose with the view of doing me an injury) it would appear that these sheep were intended for sale, and were only seen accidentally, and seized accordingly, by order of Mr. Peters.

It is a well-known fact that of late scarcely a single lot of cattle or flock of sheep have arrived from the interior, but what have been attacked with this disorder when they reach the neighbourhood of Sydney. The only difference is, the deaths are more numerous in some lots than in others, but in nearly all more or less die. It does not seem to matter where they have been fed, or whether they arrive by the southern, western, or northern road; they are alike subject to it.

On my opinion being asked by Mr. Peters relative to the disease, I told him that I considered it an epidemic, known in England as the murrain, or pestilential fever, which some years back swept off the greater part of the cattle in Europe; and the cause could not be discovered, although it was fully investigated into, and a great many letters were published; still it baffled all attempts, and no satisfactory conclusion could be formed.

White, a veterinary surgeon, in Somersetshire, in his Veterinary Dictionary, published in 1817, speaks of it, and refers to a book compiled at the time the disease [illegible] in Europe, by Mills, who colle[illegible] correspondence that then appeared on the subject, which contains much information, but cannot account for the cause.

The suggestion contained in your query, would in my opinion be of little avail, the progress of the disease is so rapid. As soon as it can be perceived that an animal is attacked, he becomes almost immediately unable to move forward; he reels and falls like a drunken man, but seldom he rises again, and dies without a struggle in a very short time. I have seen cattle and sheep die in less than five minutes after the attack has become perceptible. My opinion is, that the infection is carried in the air; and after a long journey the animal is more susceptible of taking the infection, it seems to affect the nervous system throughout the animal, that he immediately loses the use of his limbs and falls.

On opening an animal immediately after it dies, the only thing perceptible is in the melt or spleen, which is always found to be overgorged with blood of a very dark colour, and nearly twice its natural size, the mucous membrane of the intestines are more or less influenced.

As soon as the animal is dead, from the virulence of the disease, putrefaction commences, and goes on most rapidly, hence arises the danger in skinning an animal, and the loss of life which we have had so many fatal instances of, as well as the flesh being refused by the native dogs and hawks.

I am well assured that no bad results would occur from skinning or handling the flesh of an animal immediately after death; neither would a dog refuse to eat, and in the event of his eating it, would he sustain any injury, for the proof of which I will give you an instance. I had a heifer skinned and opened within a very short period after she died, on taking out the spleen it was found loaded with blood, and about double the natural size, for the sake of the experiment it was cut into pieces and given to a sow, who eat it up voraciously, and sustained no injury from it. The danger is in handling the flesh after it becomes putrid, which it does in a very short time.

I have no doubt that you will see the justice of inserting that portion of my letter which refers to the paragraph where my name appears in Monday's issue, and should you consider the remaining part not too lengthy, and worthy of notice, you will oblige me by giving it insertion.

I remain, Gentlemen,
Your obedient servant,
I. K. CLEEVE.

LATE ACCIDENT AT FLAG-STAFF HILL.

To the Editors of the Sydney Morning Herald.

Gentlemen,—Allow me to draw the attention of the authorities to the following circumstances:—

Abut seven years ago, a sailor lost his life by falling over the dangerous precipice into Kent-street. The Jury impannelled on that occasion instructed the Coroner to represent to the Government the insecurity of this place, particularly to strangers, who might have occasion to be out in this direction after dark; that numerous accidents had already occurred, which might have been prevented had only a fence been placed along the western and northern sides of the hill. The Government paid immediate attention to the subject; tenders were invited and accepted, and a sum of £40 placed on the Estimates to prevent any further casualties; but this work, like many others connected with the late Colonial Architect's department, was omitted to be performed, and the consequence has been that several persons have walked off the hill, and have become maimed for life. Another death will now have to be recorded, which might have been avoided, but for the gross, I would almost say criminal negligence of those whose duty it was to attend to this matter long since.

I am, gentlemen,
Your obedient servant,
A H.
Sydney, February 4.

To the Editors of the Sydney Morning Herald.

Gentlemen,—As you have just given insertion from the Times paper, of September 26th, 1850, to the letter of I. O., and of another correspondent, who I have no doubt is one and the same person with I. O., you will perhaps be good enough to afford room in your columns for the subjoined reply, which I extract also from the Times, of October 4th, 1850.

I am, Gentlemen,
Yours, obediently,
R. M. P.
Sydney, February 4, 1851.

To the Editor of the Times.

Sir,—I wish to offer a few remarks on the letter of "I. O." which appeared in your journal a few days ago.

The writer of this letter complains of having a heavy postage to pay for a pamphlet from Mr. Bland, of Sydney, and takes the opportunity of speaking contemptuously of that gentleman's writings, who, he states, "appears to have something to do with the Australian Patriotic Association."

It must have been through some oversight that the pamphlet was sent by post, and I as the friend of Dr. Bland, regret "I. O." was put to this expense, but I still more regret the worthy doctor pitched upon so unsuitable a person as "I. O.," who, groaning under this payment, gives way to his choler by attempting to throw a slur upon a gentleman so much his superior, and whom, he thinks, he can magnanimously abuse at the distance of 16,000 miles.

I must, however, inform "I. O." who "this Mr. William Bland" is. Instead of appearing "to have something to do with the Australian Patriotic Association," he was the chief ornament and original contriver of this liberal society, and from his vigorous letters to the late Mr. Charles Buller, M.P., did more for liberty in New South Wales than all the men in the colony put together, and that at a time when it was not common as it is now to advocate the cause of freedom, and true statesmanlike patriotism. Dr. Bland was the first member for the city of Sydney, and has in the Council, and out of it, uniformly pursued a course which, though it has not enriched himself, has benefitted his adopted country, and, from being one of the most generous of men living, he has established a name in Sydney which will survive when a thousand "I. O.'s" and his paltry postage complaint have sunk into merited oblivion.

I have the honour to be, Sir,
Your most obedient servant,
J. A. R.
London, October 3.

To the Editors of the Sydney Morning Herald.

Gentlemen,—About a week since a Correspondent of yours, signed "Bather," called the attention of the authorities to the barbarous mode of destroying stray dogs in the Outer Government Domain, and which on a former occasion I was a witness of. I now with your permission wish to draw attention to the fact of the frequent appearance of the same dead animals floating about Woolloomooloo Bay, and especially in the neighbourhood of the bathing places, to the danger and utter disgust of all the sea water bathers,—dangerous, because they encourage those ravenous animals the sea sharks to prowl about the Bay in search of food, and when hungry will attack almost anything. If it be necessary to kill dogs in the Domain, I am sure it is not to throw their dead bodies into the Bay, as I am of opinion is done; it is getting rid of a nuisance by making a greater, and of two evils choosing the worst. Is it not high time our City Council made some decided effort in constructing the Public Baths, so long talked of? and would not the above be a fit subject for its Sanitary Committee to enquire into, and remedy if possible?

I am, &c.,
ANOTHER BATHER.

FOR the Moreton Bay, Melbourne, Port Albert, or Launceston Trade, the above vessel is admirably adapted, as she will carry a large cargo, at a draught of NINE FEET.
She was built at Gardiner, State of Main, in July, 1848; her keel, keelson, stem, and sternpost, breast hooks, &c., are PASTURE OAK; her frame, beams, and planking of SOUTHERN PINE, a wood highly valued in America; her length, from stem to stern, 105 feet; beam, 24 feet 6 inches, from out to out; depth of hold, 9 feet 9 inches.

PURELY BRED SHEEP,
of which full particulars will appear in a future advertisement,
43 Imported rams
31 Imported ewes
24 Ewe lambs from the above
9 Ram lambs ditto
139 First-rate rams.

The following remarks are offered by way of information, with reference to the above sheep. In the first place they are warranted in first-rate condition AND FREE FROM DISEASE OF ANY KIND WHATEVER, and by the end of February, a large number of the wethers will be fit for market.
In the next place it must not be forgotten, that the best blood that was ever introduced into the colony has been amongst these flocks, as the large quantity of imported stock will show. The Anglo-Merino rams were purchased by James Holt, Esq., out of the well known flocks of Mr. Bennett, of Wiltshire, and sent out here in the Prince of Wales in 1847. The pure Merino Ewes and Rams were purchased by Daniel Cooper, Esq., of London, from the French Government, and shipped to this colony in 1847.
The whole of the sheep throw a heavy fleece, and the younger stock are undoubtedly far superior in quality to the general average of the best of our colonial flocks.
Lastly. Intending purchasers will please remember that this is a positive and bona fide sale, instructions having been received from the proprietors of the most imperative nature.
Parties may inspect the sheep at Messrs. Cooper and Holt's stations, Lake Bathurst, on application to Dr. Cropper, J.P.; and all particulars as to terms may be learned on application to the auctioneer. 1154
